Choice Board Due: April 24, 2020

These are fun educational activities! Meaningful participation in some educational activity every week will be REQUIRED of all students starting April 20th, 2020 in order to pass for quarter 4. There are two new high frequency words this week, make sure to work with them. Color the boxes as you complete the activities below. At the end of the week, email or message your teacher on Class Dojo, a picture of you holding your choice board with colored squares. They will post your picture to the class story to share your success with teachers and friends!
