Listen to Let's All Draw Numbers! Then, have someone at home 'dot write' numbers 1-5 on a piece of paper. First, trace the numbers with your finger. Then, use a favorite writing utensil, or even paint/glue, to trace the numbers. On a different piece of paper try to copy numbers 1-5 on your own. Send Mrs. Cattoi a picture of the numbers you write.

Here is an example of 'dot writing'

2. Sequencing

Listen to the count to 20 song! Then, make 1-10 flashcards or use print out of numbers. Practice putting numbers in order 1-10. Then, try putting the numbers in order on your own. Take a picture of your attempt and send to Mrs. Cattoi.

*Tip from our Speech teacher, Mrs.McMullen: Let Your Child Speak For Themselves- Rather than limiting your child's opportunity to express their needs, provide them the opportunity to speak for themselves. Instead of asking, "Do you want this or that," let them use their own words or sign language to let you know what they want/need.
